

An Insider's history of the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra by Paul Blackman

This history of the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra tells the story from its creation through to the world-class ensemble that performs today. Paul Blackman's background as a long-serving ASO musician, player representative and member of management places him in an ideal position to recount the orchestra's history. It includes over one hundred illustrations and many anecdotes from former players and conductors.

This book is available from the ASO at 91 Hindley St Adelaide, ph 08 8233 6233 GPO Box 2121 Adelaide or email aso@aso.com.au

It is also available from Wakefield Press, Amazon, Abebooks and Matilda Bookshop